GREY'S ANATOMY 7 p.m. on WFAA

Series star Ellen Pompeo has her second directing turn on the show with the new episode "Old Scars, Future Hearts," and she doesn't go easy on herself in the acting department since her Meredith plays a major role in the story. The doctor wants to know more about the connection her mother had to Marie Cerone (guest star Rachel Ticotin). Alex (Justin Chambers) is concerned about Jo's (Camilla Luddington) pursuit of a fellowship. Sarah Drew and Kevin McKidd also star.

PROJECT RUNWAY ALL STARS

For a new episode called "Rock Your Face Off," the remaining designers undertake a challenge that tasks them with creating striking but functional performance wear for a music superstar. Actress and model Olivia Culpo is a guest. Alyssa Milano is host and one of the judges; Anne Fulenweider, editor-in-chief of Marie Claire, is mentor to the designers.

March 9, 2018 tonight's PICKS

BLINDSPOT 7 p.m. on KXAS

Patterson (Ashley Johnson) undertakes the probe of a tattoo in the new episode "Everlasting," but her mission eventually backfires in a very big way, prompting her to try to determine exactly what went wrong — and why. Jaimie Alexander, Sullivan Stapleton, Rob Brown, Audrey Esparza and Luke Mitchell also star.

HAWAII FIVE-0 8 p.m. on KTVT

A plan by Adam (lan Anthony Dale) to get the goods on an organized-crime kingpin backfires in the new episode "Holapu ke ahi, koe iho ka lehu" (Hawaiian for "The Fire Blazed Up, Then Only Ashes Were Left"). The lethal chlorine gas Adam was intending to use ends up with someone else — and may be deployed for sinister reasons. Adam also has concerns about trusting Jessie (Christine Ko).

JANE THE VIRGIN 8 p.m. on KDAF

Rogelio (Jaime Camil) tries to motivate Jane past her case of writer's block after she receives a bad review in the new "Chapter Seventy-Six," directed by Melanie Mayron ("thirtysomething"). Xo (Andrea Navedo) also is a concern for Rogelio when he discovers she's holding onto a secret. Rafael (Justin Baldoni) ventures deeply into his own background.

HIGH MAINTENANCE 10 p.m., 11:30 p.m. on HBO

A tightly wound mother (guest star Jessica Hecht) finds her collegeage daughter's (Molly Brown) life is superseding her own, so her husband (Josh Pais) turns to The Guy (Ben Sinclair) to prescribe something to reduce her stress level and buoy their disappointing sex life in the new episode "The Ghost." After completing a routine delivery, The Guy tries to help an elderly man (Stan Carp), a good deed that turns into more than he bargained for.

9-1-1 8 p.m. on KDFW

Hoarding goes too far for some people in the tellingly titled new episode "Trapped," as their extreme collecting leaves them unable to get out of their house, requiring the first responders' assistance. Other cases revolve around a homeless man injured inside a garbage truck, and a mother and son hurt in a faulty elevator. Abby's (Connie Britton) mother (guest star Mariette Hartley) may impact her relationship with Buck (Oliver Stark).

LIFE SENTENCE 8 p.m. on KDAF

Stella (Lucy Hale) fears losing Wes (Elliot Knight) when immigration agents arrive to check upon their marriage in the new episode that knowingly shares its title with a 1997 movie, "Re-Inventing the Abbotts." Peter (Dylan Walsh) has second thoughts about selling the house after he gets an offer from a prospective buyer.

BACK

10 p.m., 3:35 a.m. on SUND

In the new "Episode 2," Stephen (David Mitchell) is dismayed to discover that his late father left five percent of the family pub business to Andrew (Robert Webb), who organizes a trendy outdoor food festival. During the event, a number of guests mistakenly use a camper Stephen has moved into as a toilet or, in the case of Stephen's ex-wife (Olivia Poulet), something worse.

THIS IS US 8 p.m. on KXAS

Probably confirmed by the number of tissues used by viewers while watching it, no fan of this drama can say it hasn't delivered in its second season. which concludes here. Some of the show's biggest questions already have been answered, but expect a good number of loose threads to be left for Season 3, which NBC already has ordered. Mandy Moore, Milo Ventimiglia, Emmy winner Sterling K. Brown, Chrissy Metz and Justin Hartley

FOR THE PEOPLE 9 p.m. on WFAA

Executive producer Shonda Rhimes revisits the legal profession — in a different way than "How to Get Away With Murder" — in this new drama, created by former litigator Paul William Davies. Public defenders (played by Britt Robertson, Jasmin Savoy Brown and Wesam Keesh) and prosecutors (Ben Rappaport, Rege-Jean Page, Susannah Flood) collide over federal cases in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. Hope Davis, Vondie Curtis-Hall and Anna Deavere Smith also star in the series "Pilot."

RISE 9:01 p.m. on KXAS

12

Comparisons to "Glee" are inevitable, but it should be noted that this grittier drama is based on a true story. Josh Radnor ("How I Met Your Mother") has the central role as a teacher who becomes the supervisor of his school's theater department in the series' premiere, portending big changes for the facility — and also for many people in the surrounding community. Developed by producer Jason Katims ("Parenthood," "Friday Night Lights"), the show also features Auli'i Cravalho ("Moana"), Rosie Perez and Marley Shelton in its "Pilot."

STALKED BY A REALITY STAR

7 p.m., 11 p.m. on LIFE

Kendra is just a teenager, so she lies about her age to get into a Hollywood party, where she meets Brad, a handsome reality TV star. She soon discovers that Brad isn't quite as charming as he first appears, so she tries to reject him. Unfortunately, Brad's not big on rejection, and his obsession with Kendra drives him to try anything — including dating her widowed mother — to stay close to her. Cynthia Preston, Scott William Wilson and Emily Bader star in this thriller.

FALLING WATER

9 p.m., 12:01 a.m. on USA

In the season finale, 'The Art of the Deal," Taka and Alex (Will Yun Lee, Sepideh Moafi) interrogate Shadowman (Dru Viergever), while Tess (Lizzie Brochere) learns that her mother had a history with Taylor Bennett's (Mary McCormack) buyer, someone named Dr. Ginsburg. A stranger comes to Shadowman's rescue as the team springs its trap. David Ajala and Kai Lennox also star.

BOXING

9:30 p.m. on ESPN

Mexican boxer and WBO featherweight champion Oscar Valdez (23-0, 19 KOs) puts his belt on the line when he faces British puncher Scott Quigg (34-1-2, 25 KOs) in a 12-round bout from Carson, Calif. Valdez's opponents have gone the distance (12-rounds) with him in his past two fights, and he also has a TKO since winning his title in 2016. He comes into this match ranked fourth in ESPN's boxer ratings, while Quigg is ranked eighth.

MARY KILLS PEOPLE

8 p.m., 10:04 p.m., 11:01 p.m., 1:05 a.m. on LIFE

After Des (Richard Short) is released from prison, Mary (Caroline Dhavernas) warily lets him back into her "death practice" after working on her own for several months, as Season 2 opens with "The Means." She begins to regret that decision almost immediately, however, when a mysterious woman named Olivia Bloom (Rachelle Lefevre) approaches Des looking for a hit man. Elsewhere, Jess's (Abigail Winter) budding relationship with a new girl makes Naomi (Katie Douglas) jealous.

SCORPION 9 p.m. on KTVT

Never bank on this team's assignments being as simple as they might seem, as "Dirty Seeds, Done Dirt Cheap" reaffirms yet again. While on a mission involving a seed bank, Happy, Sylvester and Cabe (Jadyn Wong, Ari Stidham, Robert Patrick) fall victim to hallucinations — and, potentially, to something more lethal. Reiko Aylesworth ("24") and Kevin Weisman ("Alias") reprise their guest roles. Elyes Gabel and Katharine McPhee also star.

AMERICAN IDOL 7 p.m. on WFAA

What's not-so-new is new again as this search for the next singing star switches networks after a two-year absence from television. Luke Bryan, Katy Perry and Lionel Richie form the new judging panel as Ryan Seacrest returns to host, again starting the process with auditions from cities around the country ... and, as usual, a focus on the personal stories of those hoping to move past the initial phase and actually take the performance stage. Another episode airs Monday.

TIMELESS 9 p.m. on KXAS

There's a very particular story to this fantasy-drama's return for a second season, which begins with "The War to End All Wars," since it was canceled and then - thanks in large part to an outcry from fans — "uncanceled." Abigail Spencer, Matt Lanter and Malcolm Barrett return as the trio who literally race across time ... in the case of this episode, to World War I, where Marie Curie (guest star Kim Bubbs) is enlisted to help save a wounded American soldier who is Lucy's (Spencer) great-grandfather.

DECEPTION 9:01 p.m. on WFAA

Magic is very much on the menu in this new drama series, as Jack Cutmore-Scott ("Cooper Barrett's Guide to Surviving Life") plays a superstar illusionist who has a major fall from grace. He then uses his skills to help FBI agents (Amaury Nolasco, Laila Robins) capture particularly evasive criminals. Vinnie Jones and Lenora Crichlow also star in the show, created by Chris Fedak ("Chuck") and also including Greg Berlanti and Martin Gero ("Blindspot") among its executive producers.

Ali Khan takes the cake as host of Food Network's 'Spring Baking Championship'

As a first-time host of Food Network's "Spring Baking Championship," Ali Khan is blown away by not only the creativity and skill of the competitors, but by the coolly detached manner by which Duff Goldman, Lorraine Pascale and Nancy Fuller go about judging the cakes, pies and other pastries turned out on the Monday series.

"They're not in love with it, they're not wowed by it, that's just how these people pick up a fork," he says. "Like they look at it, they take it, they take that bite, put a little thing in their mouth. ... What's funny is they kind of all had this policy of they'll take a taste and that's that. But when it was good, they would start to pick at it a little bit more. But for the most part, these guys were like literally tasting and then deliberating. They weren't weak-kneed

As the eight-episode fourth season gets going Monday, March 12, 10 bakers from around the country prepare spring-themed treats in a series of trials and challenges, hoping to impress the judges and win a $50,000 grand prize and the title of Spring Baking Champion.

All eight episodes were filmed over two weeks last summer in New Orleans, one of the world's culinary capitals and a place where Khan, who also hosts Cooking Channel's

What book are you currently reading?

"All I've been reading lately is the book to my 6-year-old, so I actually have it in my hands. I'm currently reading and rereading 'Scooby-Doo and the Fishy Phantom.' He's into Scooby-Doo right now, so honestly these are the books I've been reading a lot

What did you have for dinner last night?

"I had barbacoa tacos. Oh man, I had some hardcore Tex-Mex, like real deal Tex-Mex tacos. ... It's like these braised beef cheeks, almost steamed, like super-rich and fatty. And I also had this other thing called carne asada, which is this cross between asada, a traditional Mexican stew, braised, but carne asada has flour in it. ... It's almost like steak tips and gravy meets Mexican food. So yeah, I knocked down a couple of tacos last

What is your next project?

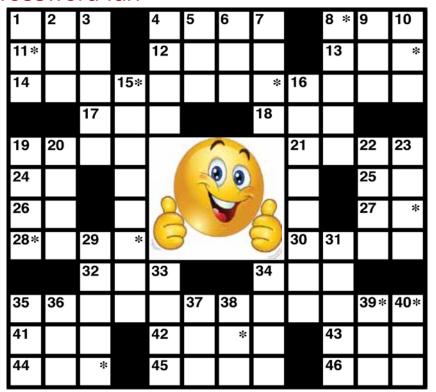

"We're going to get through Season 5 (of 'Cheap Eats')."
