CANNONBALL 7 p.m. on USA

WWE Superstar Mike "The Miz" Mizanin and TV personality Rocsi Diaz ("106 & Park") host this splashy and outrageous new watersports competition in which contestants from across the United States will vie for a cash prize. Each episode introduces 16 players who jump into the deep end (in every sense of that phrase) to compete in four rounds of physical challenges such as the speed slide Mega-Ramp, the adrenalin-pumping Drop Tower and the explosive Air Cannon until one emerges as champion. Simon Gibson is the sideline reporter.

IN THE DARK 8 p.m. on KDAF

This dark mystery thriller's gratifyingly twisty sophomore season reaches a suspenseful conclusion with "My Pride and Joy," wherein many of the characters are either on the giving or receiving end for multiple acts of betrayal, with devastating consequences for several individuals. Perry Mattfield, Brooks Markham, Morgan Krantz, Keston John, Casey Deidrick and Theodore Bhat star.

THE BOLD TYPE 9 p.m. on FREE

"Love" is both the title and the recurring theme in this new episode, which follows Kat, Jane, Sutton, Jacqueline and Alex (Aisha Dee, Katie Stevens, Meghann Fahy, Melora Hardin, Matt Ward) as each confronts challenges in his or her personal relationships, resulting in either a deeper insight into the other person or the be-ginning of what may become an irreparable romantic rift.

DINO HUNTERS 8:03 p.m., 12:03 a.m. on

In a new episode, Clayton Phipps and his team get ready to flip a 10-ton carnivore fossil out of the ground and onto a flatbed vehicle to transport it to the lab for further analysis. Elsewhere, Mike Harris hunts for the skull of a duckbill, and Jared Hudson uncovers the remains of an ancient reptile.

GREAT PERFOR-MANCES

10 p.m. on KERA

Ushering in Independence Day weekend with an encore from 2018, composer Peter Boyer's "Ellis Island: The Dream of America" merges contemporary classical music — performed by Pacific Symphony — with dramatic readings recalling the experiences of specific newcomers to the United States. Among those delivering those words: Tony Award winner Barry Bostwick (who also has done this piece on other occasions), Emmy honoree Camryn Manheim ("The Practice") and Michael Nouri ("Flashdance"). This production was staged at the Renee and Henry Segerstrom Concert Hall in Costa Mesa, Calif.

THE TALENTED MR. RIPLEY

10:15 p.m. on HBO

The talented Messrs. Damon and Law — Matt and Jude, that is - earned critical bouquets for their work in director Anthony Minghella's Hitchcockian 1999 drama. Damon plays the title character, a poor boy mistaken by a tycoon (James Rebhorn) for a college friend of his playboy son, Dickie (Law). Dad offers Ripley $1,000 to bring the young wastrel home from Europe. Instead, he disposes of Dickie and assumes his identity. Gwyneth Paltrow and Cate Blanchett also star.

THE CHALLENGE 7 p.m. on MTV

As the competition continues, one player engages in sloppy political maneuvering, while another takes a shocking gamble to save a friend in a new episode called "Total Madness: Crash Into Me." Ultimately, the remaining competitors are forced into a fight for survival in the elimination game Hall Brawl. T.J. Lavin is host.

GUY'S GROCERY GAMES

8 p.m., 9 p.m., 11 p.m., 12 a.m. on FOOD

In the new "Summer Grillin' Games Part 1," host Guy Fieri invites eight previous winners of "Guy's Grocery Games" to return to Flavortown Market for a summer grilling tournament. Each week, one chef will be awarded "best dish," win $5,000 and then move on to the next week's competition while the remaining chefs duke it out.

CHINA: POWER AND PROSPERITY — PBS NEWSHOUR PRES-ENTS

9 p.m. on KERA

Foreign affairs and defense correspondent Nick Schifrin hosts this new one-hour special, which explores the future of China's increasingly fractious relationship with the United States, which in turn will help determine the new international world order, which dominant technology will support the world's communication infrastructure and the stability of the global economy.

COUNTING ON 7 p.m., 11 p.m. on TLC

The COVID-19 pandemic has forced many families to self-quarantine in isolation for the safety of their health, but when you have more than 10 people under one roof, there obviously are special challenges involved. This hit reality series opens its 11th season with the family struggling to cope with this temporary new normal. Jessa and Ben try to keep their kids entertained in their household, while Jinger and Jeremy deal with the California restrictions. Later, several branches of the family come together via video chat.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

9 p.m. on WFAA

In a world that seems to be filled every day with one unforeseen set of circumstances after another, the question of how anyone might react when confronted with an unexpected situation assumes even greater importance. Anchor John Quinones returns tonight to launch Season 15 of this ABC News series, which explores how people behave when they think no one is watching, using hidden cameras to capture real-life individuals as they react to provocative scenarios initiated by actors and inspired by current real-world events.

HOUSE HUNTERS 9 p.m., 12 a.m. on HGTV

A new episode called "Back From Abroad" focuses on a couple who are preparing to return to the United States after living in Europe for several years. They both want to raise their son close to family in Charlotte, N.C., but they can't reach an accord on the specifics of the home they are seeking. The husband wants a smaller home in a neighborhood that is pedestrian-friendly and encourages walking, but the wife has her heart firmly set on a big, traditional two-story family residence.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

12 p.m., 3 p.m., 6 p.m., 9 p.m. on AMC

Will Smith heads an all-star cast in this edge-of-your-seat 1996 sci-fi thriller about an alien armada on a mission to invade Earth. After much of mankind is destroyed, a band of survivors joins forces to repel the invaders and save the world. Directed by Roland Emmerich, the film also stars Bill Pullman, Jeff Goldblum, Mary McDonnell, Judd Hirsch, Robert Loggia and Randy Quaid.

A CAPITOL FOURTH 7 p.m., 8:30 p.m. on KERA

For the fourth time, John Stamos returns as host of this annual holiday special, joined by co-host Vanessa Williams. This year's program will feature clips from past editions of this show. Among the featured performers are Patti Labelle, country stars Trace Adkins and Lauren Alaina, the Temptations, Tony Award-winning Broadway star Kelli O'Hara and opera star Renée Fleming, among many others. The special also will include a tribute to workers on the front lines of the health crisis and a segment honoring African-American heroes from the past and present.

MIDWAY 7 p.m. on HBO

This 2019 combat epic about the Battle of Midway, a turning point in the Pacific Theater of World War II, was a pet project of director Roland Emmerich, who struggled at first to find financing for a drama that called for flashy special effects and a large international ensemble cast. With a production budget of $100 million, it's one of the most expensive independent films of all time. Patrick Wilson, Luke Evans, Aaron Eckhart, Nick Jonas, Mandy Moore, Dennis Quaid, Woody Harrelson and Darren Criss are featured.

WAKEFIELD 7 p.m. on AMC

Bryan Cranston gives a characteristically compelling performance in the title role of this 2016 character-driven drama, an adaptation of an E.L. Doctorow short story that was itself taken from an 1835 yarn by Nathaniel Hawthorne. Cranston plays New York attorney Howard Wakefield, who seems to have it all until the day he abruptly vanishes. His family and friends don't know he's still present, watching them from an adjacent garage attic. Jennifer Garner, Beverly D'Angelo and Jason O'Mara also star.

AMERICAN EXPE-RIENCE

8 p.m. on KERA

With American voting rights becoming more and more of a key issue in the upcoming 2020 presidential election, "The Vote" — a new two-part, four-hour documentary concluding Tuesday — is a timely look back at the epic fight American women waged to secure their right to vote. Focusing mainly on the final decade of that struggle, the film charts this determined march to the ballot box, despite multiple social, political and cultural obstacles. Kate Burton narrates, with Audra McDonald, Mae Whitman, Laura Linney and Patricia Clarkson also lending their voices.

HOLLYWOOD GAME NIGHT

7 p.m. on KXAS

Two contestants join tonight's celebrity guests, dancer Stephen "tWitch" Boss, former "The Good Place" star D'Arcy Carden and actress-comic lliza Shlesinger to play an assortment of funny party games with actors Tone Bell, Yvette Nicole Brown and comic Amanda Seales. Jane Lynch acts as host as the group splits into two teams and competes for a $25,000 grand prize in the new episode "Twitch & Shout."

DRIVEN TO THE EDGE

7 p.m., 11:01 p.m. on LIFE

Millennial fashion designer Tess gets an easy kick out of using rideshare apps to get wherever she needs to go, partly because she likes to meet interesting new people that way. One of them, Jaye, has an immediate chemistry with Tess, and the two women become fast friends. This quick bonding sets off alarm bells for some of Tess's friends, though, and she eventually realizes Jaye is harboring a dark secret in this 2020 thriller. Taylor Spreitler, Danielle Burgess, Amanda Grace Benitez and Stephen Friedrich star.

GOOD WITCH 8 p.m. on HALL

Although Cassie's (Catherine Bell) temporary teaching gig is about to end, a new beginning may be just around the corner for her as Season 6 draws to a close with "The Bird." Forced to schedule some of his many unused vacation days, Sam (James Denton) devotes the time to reflecting with Cassie on a hobby or pastime they might enjoy together. Meanwhile, Joy (Katherine Barrell) would love to stay in Middleton, but faces a tough decision when Donna (Elise Bauman) finds them a new job in Vermont.

Kitchen royalty: TV chefs of the past

In the days before Food Network, Cooking Channel and of course, the internet, viewers seeking culinary content had to wait for the few cooking series that were out there to show up on their local TV stations. Production values might have been wildly inconsistent but the information offered was always first rate.

Some of the following names were among is he drank very little. them and they may or may not be familiar to many viewers. But know that these folks paved the way for what we have today – cooking shows all day and night, whenever you want them. Many of them are foodie

Julia Child, "The French Chef" (1962-73, PBS): Child introduced American viewers to French cooking at a time when t was considered exotic and expensive restaurant fare, featuring recipes from her Mastering the Art of French Cooking" bestseller and emphasizing the use of fresh and sometimes hard-to-find ingredients. She did other cooking shows after this but this s the standard bearer.

James Beard, "I Love to Eat" (1946-47, NBC): Yes, the chef for whom one of the culinary arts' most prestigious awards is named hosted this live cooking show, the first of its genre on U.S. television. It started out as a 15 minute program but went to a half hour as more intricate recipes were introduced. Sadly, no video records of it exist today.

Graham Kerr, "The Galloping Gourmet" (1968-71, syndicated): Lighthearted humor and liberal amounts of butter, cream and fat were trademarks of this Canadian-produced program hosted by the ribald Scotsman, who always liked to grace his dishes with a little wine, be it in the recipe or in his glass. But while he talked a good game, the truth

Art Ginsburg, "Mr. Food" (1975-2012, syndicated): A former butcher and amateur thespian, Ginsburg parlayed an easygoing manner and an "anybody can do it" philosophy into a full-blown cottage industry, with his cooking vignettes appearing on as many as 168 local TV stations in the early 2000s. He died in 2012 but his signature sign-off line "Ooh, it's so good!" - now legally trademarked - lives on

Jeff Smith, "The Frugal Gourmet" (1983-95, PBS): As the title suggests, a desire to not waste money while enjoying good food was the underlying philosophy of this series, hosted by a former Methodist minister with a nasal voice whose enthusiasm for food and wine was unbridled and infectious.

Emeril Lagasse, "Essence of Emeril" (1996-2008): He's still around and making television, but the amiable New Englander made his name here with his passion for Cajun and Creole cuisines as he shared recipes and techniques and showed how to add spice to traditional dishes.
