RESTAURANT: IMPOSSIBLE

8 p.m., 11 p.m. on FOOD

The new episode "Lost in the Bayou" finds chef Robert Irvine in Belle Chasse, La., where he meets Therese, the owner of Lil G's Kajun Restaurant. Despite having no restaurant experience, Therese bought the business 12 years ago, and she's managed somehow to stay afloat with the help of her daughter. Now, she's out of options after consecutive years of losing more than $100,000. Her business's name will be mud unless Robert can help turn things around.

BETTER THINGS 9 p.m., 10:11 p.m., 12:34 a.m. on FX

Season 4 of Pamela Adlon's critically acclaimed comedy series opens with two backto-back episodes that find her character, Sam, in the throes of a midlife crisis that, among other things, manifests in her impetuous purchase of a luxury car that is both family-incompatible and environmentally a disaster. Meanwhile, her kids (Hannah Alligood, Olivia Edward) try to coax her into letting them sign her up on some dating apps. Celia Imrie also stars; Telma Hopkins, Diedrich Bader, Rosalind Chao and Kevin Pollak are among the season's guest stars.

SHARK TANK 7 p.m. on WFAA

Now in its 11th season, this hit financial series swims back to its original Friday time period, but otherwise, it'll be business as usual for entrepreneurs Mark Cuban, Lori Greiner, Kevin O'Leary, Barbara Corcoran, Daymond John and Robert Herjavec as they entertain new guests pitching new products and innovations that need a receptive investor. Heriavec notes that the show launched in 2009, during a deep recession, and fans continue to engage with the show during America's current challenges.

DYNASTY 8 p.m. on KDAF

Blake and Alexis (Grant Show, Elaine Hendrix) continue their endless rivalry to win the loyalty of Fallon and Adam (Elizabeth Gillies, San Underwood), while Cristal (Daniella Alonso) finds herself forced to take drastic measures to execute her own plans in the new episode "That Wicked Stepmother." Elsewhere, Dominique (Michael Michele) calls in a significant favor from Culhane (Robert Christopher Riley), and Liam (Adam Huber) deals with someone out of his past. Alan Dale and Rafael de la Fuente also star.

SUPERNANNY

8 p.m., 12:01 a.m. on LIFE

Child-rearing expert Jo Frost brings her gifts to the chaotic Jones-Nickolich household in Hawaii, where three male triplet toddlers have turned a home into a combat zone. Mom and dad Heather and Todd had idyllic expectations for their family when they welcomed their bundles of joy, which eventually turned into wild, screaming nightmares. Even with the help of one grandmother, Heather and Todd have retreated into numb denial about the toll this non-stop misbehavior is taking on SATURDAY Daytime February 29, 2020

CHICAGO MED 7 p.m. on KXAS

The escape of a convicted murderer hits very close to home at the hospital, where several staff members find themselves in danger in the new episode "Who Should Be the Judge." Elsewhere, Drs. Charles and Halstead (Oliver Platt, Nick Gehlfuss) continue their clash over patient treatment plans, while a grateful Maggie (Marlyne Barrett) gets some long-overdue good news, and April and Dr. Choi (Yaya DaCosta, Brian Tee) discover the truth of a patient's scam.

S.W.A.T. 9 p.m. on KTVT

In the new episode "Animus," Hondo (Shemar Moore) and the rest of the SWAT team search for a hidden link that would help them connect the otherwise seemingly random victims of a lone gunman who is targeting women. Elsewhere, Luca (Kenny Johnson) lends his assistance to a homicide investigation in the neighborhood, while Lt. Lynch (Amy Farrington) pushes a reluctant Chris (Lina Esco) to do a news interview. Rochelle Aytes and Jay Harrington also

8 p.m. on KDFW

As the soapy music drama returns to finish out its final season, starting with a spring premiere called "Can't Truss 'Em," the Lyons clan is rocked by a loss, which forces one of them to deal with a still-unresolved past trauma. Andre (Trai Byers) comes to an important decision about his health, family and career, while Devon (Mario) confronts Tiana (Serayah McNeill) about her relationship with Hakeem (Bryshere "Yazz" Grey). Terrence Howard and Taraji P. Henson also star; Leslie Uggams guest stars.

2020 SUPER TUESDAY COVERAGE 9 p.m. on KXAS

NBC is just one of many broadcast and cable news outlets that will be providing coverage of today's multiple primary elections across the United States, when more delegates to the presidential nominating conventions can be won than on any other single day. Delegaterich California and Texas held their primaries today, along with Alabama, Arkansas, Colorado, Maine, Massachusetts, Minnesota, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Utah, Vermont and Virginia.

REASONABLE DOUBT

9 p.m., 12 a.m. on ID

This true-crime series, in which retired homicide detective Chris Anderson and criminal defense attorney Fatima Silva reopen closed cases to help families decide whether to appeal guilty verdicts, returns for its third season with a premiere called "When the Gun Went Off." Kathy Middleton died of a gunshot in her own home, and after investigating, police reached the conclusion that her husband, Ken, killed her. His family, however, still insists he was wrongfully convicted.

SEVEN WORLDS, ONE PLANET 8 p.m. on AMC

"Africa," the final chapter in this visually stunning nature series, finds host David Attenborough in Kenya, where he goes looking for the last two known northern white rhinos on Earth. This being the continent that usually inspires some of the greatest wildlife productions in the world, however, the hour also includes segments revealing how chimpanzees have learned to make and use tools and cheetahs are able to hunt prey twice their size.

FAMILY OR FIANCÉ 8 p.m., 11 p.m., 2 a.m. on OWN

In the new episode "Sheri and Micah: Indecisive Proposal," an aspiring rapper and his fiancée seek their families' blessing on their nuptial intentions, despite the fact that nearly all these relatives are vehemently opposed to the very idea. In the process of trying to turn around their opinions, however, the bride starts to wonder whether a lifetime commitment to a struggling artist is really the sort of thing she dreamed of as a child.

THE UNXPLAINED 9:03 p.m., 10:05 p.m., 12:06 a.m., 2:06 a.m. on HIST

Host William Shatner returns for a second season of this eerie docuseries, which examines some of the world's most fascinating mysteries. The premiere, "The Oak Island Curse," revolves around a hunt for buried treasure that has been going on since the 19th century near the titular island in Nova Scotia, based on the reported discovery of some unexplained items in that area. The same subject inspired another History Channel documentary series, "The Curse of Oak Island."

9-1-1: LONE STAR 7 p.m. on KDFW

Owen, Michelle (Rob Lowe, Liv Tyler) and the team rush to help a young family whose home has suffered a deadly infestation of rattlesnakes, then try to rescue a man suffering from dementia from a hazardous situation that he created in the new episode "Monster Inside." Later, Michelle finally learns the truth behind her sister's disappearance, while Owen adopts a can-cer-stricken firehouse dog. Elsewhere, the team is badly shaken by a tragic accident. Ronen Rubinstein also stars.

THE BACHELOR 7 p.m. on WFAA

It's good to be "The Bach-elor" in most respects, because that role puts a guy in the power seat as he goes looking for love among a bevy of beauties. This twohour "Women Tell All" special episode, however — a staple in every season of this show — often is an exception to that rule, since it provides a forum to the candidates already eliminated by Peter Weber, this season's Bachelor. You can bet some may have strong opinions about how things went for them.

THE SIMPSONS 7 p.m. on KDFW

As any fan of superhero movies and comics knows, with great power comes great responsibility — but that's a commodity a certain young Simpson scalawag has in short supply in the new episode "Bart the Bad Guy." After Bart (voice of Nancy Cartwright) accidentally sees a highly anticipated new action fantasy a month before its official release, he soon realizes he now has the fiendish option of spoiling the movie for everyone else. Can he resist the temptation?

LITTLE BIG SHOTS 7 p.m. on KXAS

This family-friendly series got a sneak preview on Feb. 24, but tonight marks the official launch of Season 4, featuring host Melissa McCarthy in a somewhat revamped new format. This season, as McCarthy meets inspiring and/ or hilarious youngsters from around the globe, they'll take her - and the audience — inside their own world, sharing remarkable stories and demonstrating some of the striking talents that set them apart.

DISPATCHES FROM ELSEWHERE

9:08 p.m., 12:24 a.m. on AMC

Jason Segel ("How I Met Your Mother") is both creator and star of this new anthology series, which revolves around four strangers including Peter, Segel's character — who have little in common other than the sense that something is missing from their lives. After their paths cross, they stumble onto a puzzle hiding just outside the veil of everyday life, "dispatches from elsewhere" challenges that lead them more deeply into a larger mystery. Sally Field, Richard E. Grant, André Benjamin and Eve Lindley also star. Another episode airs Monday.

Chefs vie for a career-making job on 'Vegas Chef Prizefight'

pay top dollar for your first-class creations, all in front of TV cameras and lights. Those are the challenges and pressure faced by contestants on Food Network's latest competition series "Vegas Chef Prizefight."

Premiering Thursday, March 5, the six-episode series tasks eight elite chefs of disparate backgrounds and culinary viewpoints with arguably the toughest job interview they'll ever face, doing dinner service at different restaurants in the Caesars Entertainment realm to prove they have the talent, leadership and determination to run a high-profile restaurant in Las Vegas, one of the world's greatest foodie cities.

The winner – as determined by host Anne Burrell, chef Scott Conant, Caesars Entertainment executive Eileen Moore and rotating guest judges – lands a job as head chef at the newly created $10 million restaurant at the Flamingo on the famed Strip.

"This is a dream job for somebody," Burrell explains, "I mean, a brand new restaurant, you get to be a part of it from the beginning. ... I don't know but I think (this is) one of the biggest stakes that Food Network has ever put on a show like this."

"They're going to be really involved in making the menu," she continues, "and they will have some input

Imagine cooking for hungry Las Vegas diners ready to on what the design of the restaurant looks like. I mean, they are really in it. It's a big job.'

> And to do a job like this means having a diverse skillset. In addition to being a talented chef and expert handler of pressure, the successful candidate needs to be good teacher, a good listener and a good cheerleader. They also need to know when to deliver a pat on the back or kick in the backside when needed, just as any

To demonstrate that, they'll do live dinner service at such varied Sin City eateries as Mr. Chow, BLT Steak at Bally's, El Burro Borracho at Rio and Giada at The Cromwell. In each instance, Burrell says diners were well aware they were part of a Food Network production.

And while Burrell was reluctant to give hints on challenges or the outcome, she does allow that nerves did play a part at first but dropped away as the competition progressed.

"It was really nice to see, after we got a couple of weeks into the process, people really start to be comfortable and showing us what they can do as cooks," she says. "You know, once you get past all the nerves, once you peel all of the noise away around the whole process and people really settle in and put their heads down, it got really exciting."
