In Focus

"She Walks With Apes" (BBC America — new special, April 22)

This new documentary, appropriately airing on the 50th anniversary of Earth Day, chronicles the epic story of three women — Jane Goodall, Dian Fossey and Biruté Galdikas — who dedicated their lives to researching the Great Apes. Science has greatly expanded its knowledge of the animals and the state of the rainforests thanks in large part to these women's efforts. Actress Sandra Oh ("Killing Eve") serves as narrator.

"Mental Samurai" (Fox — season premiere, April 22)

Rob Lowe returns to host the second season of this mental obstacle course that sees contestants battling the boundaries of their minds to answer questions accurately with speed and precision. To take the action up a notch, the contestants are then whipped around the arena in a high-speed capsule while it does a series of twists and turns. Steel brains and stomachs need apply!

"I Know This Much Is True" (HBO — series premiere, April 27)

Three-time Oscar nominee Mark Ruffalo stars in a dual role, playing twins Dominick and Thomas Birdsey, in this six-episode limited drama series. Set in 20th-century America, the story tells about the paralled lives of the two men dealing with betrayal, sacrifice and forgiveness. Melissa Leo, Rosie O'Donnell, Imogen Poots and Archie Panjabi also star.

"The Bachelorette" (ABC — season premiere, May 18)

It's been a long time waiting on love for this season's newest leading lady. Clare Crawley was seen walking out on Juan Pablo Galavis in Season 18 of "The Bachelor," went looking for romance again in Seasons 1 and 2 of "Bachelor in Paradise" and almost walked down the aisle with Benoit Beauséjour-Savard from "Bachelor Winter Games" (2018), but their engagement didn't last. Will this finally be the time she meets her match?

NEWS ONLINE

tonight's PICKS

THE SINNER

9 p.m., 12:03 a.m. on USA

Season 3 of this anthology drama series opened as Detective Harry Ambrose (Bill Pullman) began an investigation into a tragic car accident in upstate New York, where the victim's college buddy, expectant father Jamie Burns (Matt Bomer), is left grief-stricken after reporting the incident. Since then, however, Harry's investigation has turned up a hidden crime. Events reach a climax in tonight's season finale, as Jamie, bent on revenge, finds himself on a collision course with Harry.

A MILLION LITTLE THINGS

9:01 p.m. on WFAA

The soapy drama closes out Season 2 with a finale called " 'Til Death Do Us Part," which finds Eddie and Katherine (David Giuntoli, Grace Park) preparing to renew their vows. Everyone rushes to the hospital, though, when Eve (guest star Ebboney Wilson) goes into labor. Elsewhere, Maggie (Allison Miller) shares some shocking news with Gary (James Roday), while Delilah and Miles (Stephanie Szostak, guest star Parker Young) grow closer. Sprague Grayden also guest stars.

WIDOWS

6:50 p.m. on CINE

British director Steve McQueen ("12 Years a Slave") directed and co-wrote this crackling 2018 British-American heist drama about four Chicago women who try to rob $5 million from a local politician to repay a crime boss from whom their late husbands stole before being killed in a failed getaway.

GREAT PERFORMANCES AT THE MET

8 p.m. on KERA

Soprano Christine Goerke takes the vocally demanding title role in "Turandot," Giacomo Puccini's final opera, in an eye-popping lavish Met staging by Franco Zeffirelli. Set in a mythic ancient China, the production also stars tenor Yusif Eyvazov as Prince Calaf, who tries to answer three fiendish riddles to win the hand of the icy princess Turandot. The lush score includes the tenor aria "Nessun Dorma," which became one of superstar Luciano Pavarotti's vocal calling cards. Metropolitan Opera music director Yannick Nézet-Séguin conducts.

STRIKE BACK

9 p.m., 9:50 p.m., 12:55 a.m. on CINE

In a new episode, Wyatt and Novin (Daniel MacPherson, Alin Sumarwata) have a reunion with Mac (Warren Brown) long after the dust has cleared from the incident in Munich. Later, while he's enjoying what seems to be an idyllic existence with his wife and daughter, Mac is haunted by nightmares of his violent past that make him worry his service was somehow inadequate and left some unfinished business.

MOTHERLAND: FORT SALEM

8 p.m., 9 p.m., 12 a.m. on FREE

In the new episode "My Witches," the group travels to Salem Town for an annual witch celebration, which subsequently is thrown into chaos by an unexpected disturbance. When Tally (Jessica Sutton) finds herself confronted by her own mother's objections, as well as widespread hostility toward witches, she begins to doubt whether her decision to pursue a military career was a good one. After Adler (Lyne Renee) denies her request to change units, Abigail (Ashley Williams) tries to mend fences with Raelle (Taylor Hickson).

SEAL TEAM

8:01 p.m. on KTVT

Tempers start to flare on the homefront as Sonny (A.J. Buckley) considers a new career path in the new episode "Last Known Location." Elsewhere, a frustrated Clay (Max Thieriot) ponders taking a new career path, while Jason (David Boreanaz) is put under more pressure by Captain Lindell (Jamie McShane). All this personal drama plays out while Bravo team prepares for a three-month deployment to Afghanistan.

THE CONNERS
7 p.m. on WFAA

Newly unemployed and depressed, Harris (Emma Kenney) moves back into the Conner home, while Becky (Lecy Goranson) struggles to find childcare she can afford in the new episode "Tats and Tias." When Jackie (Laurie Metcalf) suggests Becky seek help from Emilio's (guest star Rene Rosado) family, he refers her to the two aunts who helped raise him. Elsewhere, Dan (John Goodman) runs into his old riding buddy Tony (guest star Steve Agee), who just opened a leather and tattoo shop. Sara Gilbert also stars.

THIS IS US
8 p.m. on KXAS

One of TV's most heart-tugging family dramas closes Season 4 tonight in the finale "Strangers: Part Two," as the Pearson family gathers for baby Jack's first birthday, but at least fans don't have to sweat their show's fate: NBC already has renewed "This Is Us" all the way through Season 6. As for the many stories on tap next season, expect to learn more about that "mild cognitive impairment" Rebecca's (Mandy Moore) doctor noticed earlier this season.

COUNCIL OF DADS
9:01 p.m. on KXAS

NBC's latest gambit to make audiences feel all the feels "This Is Us"-style casts Tom Everett Scott ("13 Reasons Why") as Scott Perry, a devoted father of five whose long-range plans are shaken up by an unexpected health scare. As always, Scott's first priority is his family, so he assembles a team of trusted friends — played by Clive Standen ("Taken"), J. August Richards ("Angel") and Michael O'Neill ("Scandal") — who can tag in as part-time dads when circumstances demand it. Sarah Wayne Callies also stars.

X-MEN: DARK PHOENIX
7 p.m., 11:45 p.m. on HBO

Ultimately something of a box-office disappointment, this 2019 superhero film — which concluded 20th Century Fox's "X-Men" movie series — still earned generally warm reviews for its large ensemble cast, much of which returned to familiar characters. The story follows the team of mutants as they struggle to deal with the Phoenix, a dark entity that is unleashed after Jean Grey (Sophie Turner) is struck by a massive blast of energy during a space rescue mission. James McAvoy, Michael Fassbender, Jennifer Lawrence and Nicholas Hoult also star.

SAY YES TO THE DRESS: ATLANTA
7 p.m., 11 p.m. on TLC

For the first time, fans of this long-running reality series will get a sense of the entire Bridals by Lori experience as the show opens Season 11 with "Are They About to Fight?" Colleagues Lori Allen and Monte Durham are pushed to their limits as they pull double duty, handling wedding-gown appointments upstairs and dashing down to the bridesmaids' floor when a full-scale war threatens to erupt. They'll also help reality star Jessa Duggar Seewald 's ("Counting On") sister-in-law choose a surprisingly daring gown.

HAMPSTEAD
8 p.m. on SHOW

Diane Keaton and Irish actor Brendan Gleeson make something of an odd couple in this sweet-natured 2017 romantic comedy loosely based on a true story. Gleeson stars as Donald Horner, an eccentric who has spent the past 17 years illegally living in London's vast Hampstead Heath park — and who ultimately decides to fight to assert ownership of his small patch of land, based on squatting laws.

MANIFEST

9:01 p.m. on KXAS

Zeke's (Matt Long) condition deteriorates as his death date looms, so he decides to confront his past, but Saanvi (Parveen Kaur) is determined to secure a new future for him in the new episode "Unaccompanied Minors." Elsewhere, Ben and T.J. (Josh Dallas, Garrett Wareing) are led to an unexpected loved one by a pair of linked callings, while Michaela (Melissa Roxburgh) faces a tough moral decision when her own calling instructs her to let a criminal go free.

DISPATCHES FROM ELSEWHERE

9:10 p.m., 11:23 p.m., 1:36 a.m. on AMC

The team members start to notice that this "game" is starting to have a significantly deeper impact on their lives in the real world in the new episode "Clara." As the gang learns the full story surrounding Clara's disappearance, the mystery only deepens. Ultimately, some fresh clues send the game in a completely new direction. Jason Segel, Sally Field, Eve Lindley, André Benjamin and Richard E. Grant star.

WHEN CALLS THE HEART

7 p.m. on HALL

In the new episode "An Unexpected Gift," the whole community is abuzz when a mystery admirer leaves a bouquet of flowers on Elizabeth's (Erin Krakow) doorstep. She suspects either Nathan (Kevin McGarry) or Lucas (Chris McNally) may be behind the mysterious delivery. Elsewhere, Rosemary and Lee (Pascale Hutton, Kavan Smith) organize bachelor and bachelorette parties for Jesse and Clara (Aren Buchholz, Eve Bourne). Jack Wagner and Martin Cummins also star.

DUNCANVILLE

7:30 p.m. on KDFW

Jack and Annie (voices of Ty Burrell, Amy Poehler) try to rekindle the passion of their youth by visiting a 1980s-themed club to celebrate their anniversary, but wind up realizing their maturity may not be so boring after all in the new episode "Sister, Wife." Elsewhere, Jing (voice of Joy Osmanski) makes Duncan (Poehler again) "marry" her, but their fauxunion quickly becomes fraught with very real marital problems. Meanwhile, Kimberly (voice of Riki Lindhome) acts out to get attention.

THE ROOKIE

9 p.m. on WFAA

Nolan's (Nathan Fillion) day gets off to a notably bad start when he learns that his identity has been stolen, a frustrating turn of events that could jeopardize his position as a police officer in the new episode "Hand-Off." Elsewhere, Sgt. Casey (Richard T. Jones) likewise finds himself painfully tested, as he is forced to confront his past and testify at the parole hearing of a man who shot Casey and murdered his partner. Brent Huff and Seth Green co-star.

Vivian Howard goes 'Somewhere South' to find the foods that connect cultures

Vivian Howard was ready to move on.

After five seasons hosting and producing her Peabody and Daytime Emmy Award-winning culinary/documentary series "A Chef's Life," about the ups and downs of running an upscale restaurant in her rural community, the Kinston, N.C.-based chef realized her interests had evolved and wanted to try something else. She also wasn't all that crazy about putting her personal life on camera.

Which is what led her to create "Somewhere South." Premiering Friday, March 27, on PBS (check local listings), the six-part hourlong series sees Howard taking a culinary tour of the changing South to find the dishes that connect us all – be they noodles, hand pies, dumplings or porridges – though expressed differently in different cultures. Along the way, she learns new things and discovers how sharing a meal can create a comfortable place where meaningful conversations can take place.

Among the places she visits are Charleston, S.C., where she samples grits with rice middlins made by Gullah chefs; North Carolina, where she tries the collard sandwich, a staple of Lumbee Indian cuisine; and in Friday's premiere, West Virginia to learn how to make the pepperoni roll, a hand food popular with local coal miners.

"Pepperoni rolls are an American adaptation of a snack in Italy or Sicily," Howard explains, "where a lot of the coal miners in West Virginia came from. And so they settled in Fairmont, W.Va., and because they needed to go down in the mines and have lunch, housewives were packing up rolls and sticks of pepperoni. And some ingenious housewife one day decided to roll up the pepperoni in a roll and bake it and it became really West Virginia's ubiquitous dish."

"I had lots of friends in West Virginia and they would come back from spring break with just trays of pepperoni rolls," she continues, "And I had never heard of it but as a teen living in a dorm, I was like super into it, so I had this connection to the pepperoni roll and really as a hand pie or the food of labor, the food of convenience."

In another episode, Howard heads to Savannah, Ga., to sample another crosscultural staple, the local porridge. For this, she drops in on chef Mashama Bailey at The Grey, a converted bus station, to try its variations on the traditional dish.

"We all have a porridge," Howard says. "Everybody has a noodle, everyone has a hand pie, everyone has a pickle. And so in the porridge episode, we really dig into grits as a porridge."

"And so we tour her restaurant," she continues, "and she makes a very humble porridge and a very elevated porridge. And we talk about how in the South and really like the United States over, chefs are taking very humble food traditions and exalting them and making them fancy."
