AMERICAN EXPERIENCE

Originally shown in 2010, "Roads to Memphis" is rebroadcast on the eve of the 50th anniversary of the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Based on a book by Hampton Sides, the program traces the respective paths that led the civil-rights icon and assassin-to-be James Earl Ray to Tennessee on that ultimately fateful day. Eyewitnesses to the crime offer comments, as do veteran journalist Dan Rather and investigators who pursued Ray globally for two months following the murder.

BLACKISH

Acceptance letters give Junior (Marcus Scribner) a choice of prestigious colleges to attend, but Dre (Anthony Anderson) prefers his own alma mater for his son — and lets him know it — in the new episode "Black Math." Ruby (Jenifer Lewis) devotes herself to overseeing Jack's (Miles Brown) budding comedy career, leaving Diane (Marsai Martin) feeling left out. Tracee Ellis Ross , Laurence Fishburne and Yara Shahidi also star.

LEGION

The critically acclaimed yet modestly rated TV fantasy based on a Marvel Comics character opens Season 2, which begins a year after the season 1 finale, which saw the evil Amahl Farouk (Navid Negahban), aka the Shadow King, forced from the mind of David Haller (Dan Stevens). These new episodes shift from David's earlier internal struggle to an external battle that sees David and his associates pursuing this adversary even as the parasitic villain searches for his original body.

Eating your way across the country on Food, Cooking and Travel

As winter turns to spring, you may find yourself coming down with a case of wanderlust. If so, a number of series on basic cable show you where you can find some good eats in just about every corner of the country.

Such is the case with the Cooking Channel series known as “Cheap Eats,” which in the Wednesday, April 4, episode finds host Ali Khan in Boston, where he has a coffee-encrusted Bloody Mary burger for breakfast, Chinese dumplings for lunch and a lobster roll for dinner. Fine dining on a budget of $35 or less.

Over on the other side of the country on Travel Channel, two series check out what’s on the menu in San Diego. In the Tuesday, April 3, episode of “The Zimmern List,” host Andrew Zimmern takes viewers to some of his favorite off-the-beaten-path spots, including Little Italy for seafood and Barrio Logan for some authentic Mexican cuisine. And on Sunday’s “Best in Food,” it’s a visit to the San Diego Mac n’ Cheese Fest. Need we say more?

Working our way back east, Food Network’s “Vegas Cakes” opens its second season on Monday, April 2, with Sin City’s venerable Freed’s Bakery continuing to wow its customers with its fun, elaborate and delicious cake designs.

That same day on Travel, a second episode of “Best in Food” heads to Magnolia, Ark., for its annual World Championship Steak Cook-Off, in which competitors grill up rib eyes in the hopes of winning a $10,000 grand prize.

If Southern cuisine is what you desire, the Thursday, April 5, edition of Cooking’s “Carnival Eats” sees host Noah Cappe sampling the outsized, outrageous and unusual foods to be had at carnivals in the U.S. South, all with that down-home flair.

Guy Fieri is all over the map in the Friday, April 6, episode of Food’s “Diners, Drive-Ins and Dives,” in which he tries pizza that comes with a surprise in Lansing, Mich.; sandwiches that offer a taste of Philadelphia in Wilmington, N.C.; and Peruvian cuisine in Tucson, Ariz. Eclectic yet unpretentious dining at its finest.

And back on the East Coast in the Long Island, N.Y., kitchen of Ina Garten, the Sunday installment of Food’s “Barefoot Contessa” titled “Cook Like a Pro: Parmesan” finds the host preparing a spread of lemon parmesan chicken, broccoli rabe with sausage, parmesan chive smashed potatoes and celery and parmesan salad. And for dessert, canapes topped with parmesan shards, parmesan crisps and parmesan and chipotle popcorn. Delizioso!
